TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

*Martyr Anastasia the Roman;
Ven. Abramius the Recluse, and his niece, Bl. Mary, of Mesopotamia;
Martyrs Claudius, Asterius, Neon, and Theonilla, of Ægæ in Cilicia;
Righteous Anna of Constantinople; Ven. Avramii, Archimandrite of Rostov;
Monk-Martyr Timothy of Esphigmenou*

Your lamb Anastasia calls out to You, O Jesus, in a loud voice: "I love You, my Bridegroom, and in seeking You I endure suffering. In baptism I was crucified so that I might reign in You, and I died so that I might live with You. Accept me as a pure sacrifice, for I have offered myself in love." Through her prayers, save our souls, since You are merciful.

Troparion, Tone IV

You abandoned all earthly concerns, O Father Abramius, living righteously in hope of things to come and receiving a sacred anointing. Initiated into divine mysteries, you enlighten those who cry: Glory to Him who has strengthened you! Glory to Him who has granted you a crown! Glory to Him who through you works healing for all!

Troparion, Tone I

5:00 p.m. Great Vespers

WELCOME GUESTS!

We are very glad you have come to worship the Holy Trinity with us this morning! Please participate in the services at your comfort level. Our greeters will kindly assist you with whatever questions or needs you may have. During each Sunday service we offer Holy Communion. If you are a practicing Orthodox Christian and have come prepared to receive Christ's Body and Blood through fasting and prayer, please come forward to partake. All guests are invited to come forward at the end of the service to greet Fr. Christopher and receive the blessed bread. Please stay after the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour in the Fellowship Hall so we can get to know you better!

Families with children: we encourage children of all ages to be present and participate as they are able during worship. We know sometimes kids need a break, so please take good advantage of our Rest and Refocus Room located on the south side of the lobby/narthex when coming in the main entrance. If you have pre-school and school age children, we invite you to send them to Church School directly after the Divine Liturgy throughout the academic year. May God bless you!

Daily Scripture Readings can be found in the St. Tikhon's Wall Calendar or at www.oca.org/readings.
