FIFTH SUNDAY OF PASCHA

Samaritan Woman

*St. Nicephorus the Confessor, Patriarch of Constantinople;
Greatmartyr John the New of Sochi; St. John the New of Suceava;
Glorification of Ven. Zabulon and Sosanna, parents of St. Nina, Enlightener of Georgia*

The Samaritan Woman came to the well in faith; she saw You, the Water of Wisdom, and drank abundantly. She inherited the Kingdom on High and is ever glorified!

Kontakion, Tone VIII

Through your inspired confession, you gained victory for the Church, holy Hierarch Nicephorus. You suffered unjust exile because of your reverence for the icon of God the Word. Righteous Father, entreat Christ our God to grant us His great mercy.

Troparion, Tone III

HOLY WORSHIP THIS WEEK:

WELCOME GUESTS!

We are very glad you have come to worship the Holy Trinity with us this morning! Please participate in the services at your comfort level. Our greeters will kindly assist you with whatever questions or needs you may have. During each Sunday service we offer Holy Communion. If you are a practicing Orthodox Christian and have come prepared to receive Christ's Body and Blood through fasting and prayer, please come forward to partake. All guests are invited to come forward at the end of the service to greet Fr. Christopher and receive the blessed bread. Please stay after the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour in the Fellowship Hall so we can get to know you better!

Families with children: we encourage children of all ages to be present and participate as they are able during worship. We know sometimes kids need a break, so please take good advantage of our Rest and Refocus Room located on the south side of the lobby/narthex when coming in the main entrance. If you have pre-school and school age children, we invite you to send them to Church School directly after the Divine Liturgy throughout the academic year. May God bless you!

Daily Scripture Readings can be found in the St. Tikhon's Wall Calendar or at www.oca.org/readings.
